Chapter 1 by Gounaitory

This story about illusions. Just agree that we all sometimes get lost inside of them, we start living with illusions. Our illusions can be referred to the people, to the things we are waiting to happen with us...

That evening I was sitting in the balcony and looking to the noisy Caspian sea. It was windy and bit chilling, which was a bit unique for hot summer in Baku. I was waiting for Steven to call me. Tomorrow he had to come and I had to meet him up in the airport. I almost gave up waiting for his call because it was quite late night.

Chapter 2 by invisiblebird

When the call came, its content could not be more unexpected.

"Gounaitory!

You would not fucking believe what just happened. There are a group of rabid aliens trying to kill me. They already control the government. Please help me."

Well, you have to admire his ability to hold his breath
